Charter Schools
Coming to Already Invading OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

What do you know about your local Charter School and how is it depleting from our neighborhood public schools?

Backpack Full of Cash takes an urgently needed look at how charter schools, vouchers and the privatization movement are threatening public schools.

Did you know that since 2011-12 school year tax dollars provided to privately operated charter schools have increased by over 140% to $2.84 billion per year?

In 2017-18 San Antonio had 32,545 students enrolled in Charter schools at a cost to taxpayers of $285,635,355.
