

#RedForEd Rally at the Capitol

Join your fellow educators and friends of public education for a march to the Capitol and a rally on the south steps on Monday, March 11, 2019. The rally will begin at noon. We will be wearing red to show our solidarity and strength in advocating for more resources for our public school students and educators. Register below to let us know you'll be joining this session's largest education lobby day event.
