TSTA applauds Supreme Court's DACA decision as "huge blow" for democracy, humanity and decency

Texas State Teachers Association President Noel Candelaria issued the following statement:

"We applaud the Supreme Court's decision protecting the Dreamers, the young immigrants who have grown up in this country and are making huge contributions to our society. They are students, educators, business people, health care workers and other professionals. Many are on the front lines this very day, risking their own lives to save the lives of others during this coronavirus pandemic.

"This is the only country these young people have ever known, and by ruling in their favor the Supreme Court has struck a huge blow for democracy, humanity and decency."
