

2024 Party Convention Information

During the 2024 election cycle, TSTA members are encouraged to participate in the 2024 Texas Party Conventions. This summer Texas Democrats and Republicans will convene to prepare for the November general election, adopt party rules, and select delegates to the national Democratic National Committee and Republican National Committee conventions.

These conventions serve as an opportunity for members to participate within their political party and connect with like-minded activists and organizations from across Texas.

Information on how to become a delegate to the Texas Democratic Convention and the Texas State Republican Convention is below.

2024 Texas Democratic Convention

- Texas Democrats will convene in El Paso on June 6-8, 2024, at the El Paso Convention Center, more information can be found at <https://texasdemocraticconvention.com>.
- Democratic primary voters must first register and attend their County/Congressional District Convention. State convention delegates are allocated by congressional district according to previous Democratic gubernatorial results and elected at the County/Congressional District Conventions held across Texas on March 23, 2024.
- Those interested in attending their County/Congressional District Convention can pre-register using this link: <http://txdem.co/Convention-Preregistration>.
- Interested voters can search for their congressional district using this link: <http://txdem.co/myrep> Texas Democratic Convention delegate distribution can be found here: <https://txdem.co/24-State-Delegates>.
- After being selected as a state delegate, voters can attend the statewide convention in El Paso where delegates will adopt a platform, rules, resolutions, and elect delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

- National convention delegates are apportioned and elected by congressional districts, those intending to run as a national delegate must file with the Texas Democratic Party by May 9th, 2024. Delegates to the state convention in El Paso will caucus with their congressional district and elect delegates to the National Democratic Convention in Chicago on August 19-22, 2024. More information on the selection process can be found here: <https://txdem.co/Delegate-Selection-Plan>.
- An overview of the 2024 Texas Democratic Convention delegate process can be found using the following link: txdem.co/Convention-Toplines.

2024 Texas State Republican Convention

- Texas Republicans will convene in San Antonio on May 23-25, 2024, at the Henry B. Gonzales Convention Center, more information can be found at <https://texasgop.org/2024-state-convention/>.
- Republican primary voters interested in attending the state convention must first attend their Precinct and County/Senate District conventions. Precinct-level conventions will take place after the Texas primary election and are an opportunity for voters to elect delegates to their County/Senate District conventions and vote on party resolutions.
- Voters can find out more information about their precinct convention on their Republican county party website or by contacting their county party chair using this link: https://texasgop.org/county_chairs/.
- After attending their Precinct convention voters can attend their County/Senate District convention on March 23rd, 2024. County/Senate District convention delegates will be able to visit committee meetings, vote on rules and resolutions, and elect delegates to the Texas State Republican convention in San Antonio.
- Delegates to the Republican state convention are apportioned and elected according to the Texas Senate District, more information can be found here: <https://texasgop.org/countysenatorial-district-convention/>.
- Voters selected as delegates to the Texas State Republican Convention in San Antonio will meet to elect party leadership, adopt a policy platform, and elect delegates to the 2024 Republican National Convention.
- Those interested in becoming delegates to the 2024 Republican National Convention in Milwaukee on July 15-18 must be elected by their congressional caucus at the state convention.
- A summary of the Texas Republican convention process can be found at: <https://rb.gy/2itl3d>.

